Information and Rules for Mildly Disabled Endorsements

a. The following rules were adopted by the Board of Educational Examiners in the spring 1996 for the K-6 and 7-12 mildly disabled endorsements.

a. K-6 Mildly Disabled. This endorsement authorizes instruction to mildly disabled children who require special education program adaptations while assigned to a regular classroom for basic instructional purposes, or mildly disabled students placed in a special education class who receive part of their instruction in a regular classroom, or mildly disabled students requiring specially designed instruction while assigned to a regular classroom for basic instructional purposes.

Requirements for this endorsement:

1. Hold a regular education instruction endorsement at the elementary level. For the elementary level, is the general elementary endorsement (the previous #10 or the current #102).
2. Hold one of the following endorsements at the elementary level: learning disabilities, mild-moderate mentally handicapped, behavioral disorders, multicategorical resource room or multicategorical special class with integration.

b. 7-12 Mildly Disabled. This endorsement authorizes instruction to mildly disabled children who require special education program adaptations while assigned to a regular classroom for basic instructional purposes, or mildly disabled students placed in a special education class who receive part of their instruction in a regular classroom, or mildly disabled students requiring specially designed instruction while assigned to a regular classroom for basic instructional purposes.

Requirements for this endorsement:

1. Hold a regular education instruction endorsement at the secondary level (7-12).
2. Hold one of the following endorsements at the secondary level: learning disabilities, mild-moderate mentally handicapped, behavioral disorders, multicategorical resource room or multicategorical special class with integration.

NOTE: This endorsement is designed for programs serving primarily the mildly disabled students; the sensory impaired are not included as "mildly disabled."

NOTE: It is possible that when the Board completes its work on a revised special education licensure system that the holders of either of these two endorsements might be held to specific course work for licensure renewal.
